Item 1.01 – Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On June 14, 2018, TPG Specialty Lending, Inc. (“the Company”) issued $50 million aggregate principal amount of 4.50% Convertible Notes due 2022 (the “Notes”). The Notes have identical terms, are fungible with and are a part of a single series with the outstanding $115 million aggregate principal amount of the Company’s 4.50% Convertible Notes due 2022 issued in February 2017 in a private offering (the “Existing Notes”). The Notes were issued pursuant to an indenture, dated February 1, 2017 (the “Base Indenture”), as supplemented by a First Supplemental Indenture, dated June 19, 2018 (the “First Supplemental Indenture” and together with the Base Indenture, the “Indenture”), between the Company and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as trustee (the “Trustee”). The sale of the Notes generated net proceeds of approximately $49.1 million.

The Company has also granted the underwriters an option to purchase up to an additional $7.5 million aggregate principal amount of the Notes to cover over-allotments, if any.

The Company today used the net proceeds of this offering to pay down debt under its revolving credit facility.

The Notes mature on August 1, 2022 (the “Maturity Date”), unless previously converted or repurchased in accordance with their terms. The Notes bear interest at a rate of 4.50% per year payable semiannually in arrears on February 1 and August 1 of each year, commencing on August 1, 2018. The Notes are the Company’s senior unsecured obligations and rank senior in right of payment to the Company’s future indebtedness that is expressly subordinated in right of payment to the Notes; equal in right of payment to the Company’s existing and future indebtedness that is not so subordinated; effectively junior in right of payment to any of the Company’s secured indebtedness (including existing unsecured indebtedness that the Company later secures) to the extent of the value of the assets securing such indebtedness; and structurally junior to all existing and future indebtedness (including trade payables) incurred by the Company’s subsidiaries, financing vehicles or similar facilities.

Prior to the close of business on the business day immediately preceding February 1, 2022, holders may convert their Notes only under certain circumstances set forth in the Indenture. On or after February 1, 2022 until the close of business on the scheduled trading day immediately preceding the Maturity Date, holders may convert their Notes at any time. Upon conversion, the Company will pay or deliver, as the case may be, at its election, cash, shares of its common stock or a combination of cash and shares of its common stock. The conversion rate on the Existing Notes when issued in February 2017 was initially 46.8516 shares of common stock per $1,000 principal amount of Existing Notes (equivalent to an initial conversion price of approximately $21.34 per share of common stock). After giving effect to certain adjustments, as of the date hereof, the conversion rate on the Notes is 47.5093 shares of common stock per $1,000 principal amount of Notes (equivalent to a conversion price of approximately $21.05 per share of common stock). The conversion rate will be subject to further adjustment in some events but will not be adjusted for any accrued and unpaid interest. In addition, if certain corporate events occur prior to the Maturity Date, the conversion rate will be increased for converting holders.

It is the Company’s current intent and policy to settle conversions through a combination of cash and shares of its common stock with a specified dollar amount of $1,000, and the Company expects to account for the Notes using the treasury stock method, the effect of which is that the shares issuable upon conversion of the Notes are not included in the calculation of diluted earnings per share except to the extent that the conversion value of the Notes exceeds their principal amount.

The Company may not redeem the Notes at its option prior to maturity. No sinking fund is provided for the Notes. In addition, if certain corporate events occur in respect of the Company, holders of the Notes may require the Company to repurchase for cash all or part of their Notes at a repurchase price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be repurchased, plus accrued and unpaid interest through, but excluding, the required repurchase date.

The Indenture contains certain covenants, including covenants requiring the Company to comply with Section 18(a)(1)(A) as modified by Section 61(a)(1) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, and to provide financial information to the holders of the Notes and the Trustee if the Company ceases to be subject to the reporting requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. These covenants are subject to important limitations and exceptions that are described in the Indenture.

The Notes were offered and sold pursuant to the Registration Statement on Form N-2 (File No. 333-223986), the preliminary prospectus supplement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on June 14, 2018 and the pricing term sheet filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on June 14, 2018. The transaction closed on June 19, 2018.

The foregoing description of the Base Indenture, the First Supplemental Indenture and the Notes does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Base Indenture (including the Form of the 4.50% Notes due 2022), filed as an exhibit to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on February 1, 2017, and the full text of the First Supplemental Indenture, filed as an exhibit hereto, and in each case incorporated by reference herein.

WHEREAS; pursuant to the Original Indenture, the Company initially issued $115,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its 4.50% Convertible Notes due 2022 (the “Initial Notes”);

WHEREAS; the Company may, without the consent of the Holders and notwithstanding Section 2.01 of the Indenture, reopen the Indenture and issue additional Notes under the Indenture with the same terms as the Initial Notes (except that the first Interest Payment Date and the date from which interest may accrue may be different) in an unlimited aggregate principal amount;

WHEREAS, the Company wishes to issue up to an additional $57,500,000 aggregate principal amount of its 4.50% Convertible Notes due 2022 as additional Notes under the Indenture (the “Additional Securities”);

WHEREAS; pursuant to Section 10.01 of the Indenture the Company may, without the consent of the Holders, enter into a supplemental indenture to make any change to the Indenture that does not adversely affect the rights of any Holder as determined in good faith by the Company;

WHEREAS, the Company wishes to incorporate into the Indenture the mandatory provisions of the Trust Indenture Act that were provided for by law pursuant to Section 318 of the Trust Indenture Act;

WHEREAS, pursuant to Sections 2.01, 2.10, 10.01 and 10.05 of the Indenture, the parties hereto are authorized to execute and deliver this Supplemental Indenture to amend the Indenture, without the consent of any Holder; and

WHEREAS, the Company has duly authorized the execution and delivery of this Supplemental Indenture to provide for the issuance of the Additional Securities and to amend certain terms of the Indenture, and all acts and things necessary to make this Supplemental Indenture a valid, binding, and legal obligation of the Company and to constitute a valid agreement of the Company, in accordance with its terms, have been done and performed.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the Company and the Trustee mutually covenant and agree for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes as follows:

1. Defined Terms. As used in this Supplemental Indenture, terms defined in the Indenture or in the preamble or recitals hereto are used herein as so defined.

2. Additional Notes. The Additional Securities issued pursuant to this Supplemental Indenture constitute additional Notes issued pursuant to Sections 2.01 and 2.10 of the Indenture and shall be consolidated with and form a single class with the Initial Notes previously established pursuant to the Indenture. The Additional Securities shall have the same terms in all respects as the Initial Notes, except that the first interest payment date with respect to the Additional Securities shall be August 1, 2018, the Additional Securities shall accrue interest from February 1, 2018, the Additional Securities shall have a different issue date, and the Additional Securities shall be issued as Unrestricted Global Notes. Subject to the foregoing, the Additional Securities shall be substantially in the form of Exhibit A to the Indenture.

3. Aggregate Principal Amount. The aggregate principal amount of the Additional Securities that may be authenticated and delivered pursuant to this Supplemental Indenture shall be limited to $57,500,000.

4. Amendments to the Original Indenture. The Indenture is hereby amended as follows.

The following is hereby added as new Section 1.03 of the Indenture:

“Section 1.03. Conflict with Trust Indenture Act. If any provision hereof limits, qualifies or conflicts with a provision of the Trust Indenture Act which is required under such Act to be a part of and govern this Indenture, the latter provision shall control. If any provision of this Indenture modifies or excludes any provision of the Trust Indenture Act which may be so modified or excluded, the latter provision shall be deemed to apply to this Indenture as so modified or to be excluded, as the case may be.”

The following is hereby added as new Section 5.03 of the Indenture:

“Section 5.03. Disclosure of Names and Addresses of Holders. Every Holder of Notes, by receiving and holding the same, agrees with the Company and the Trustee that neither the Company nor the Trustee nor any authenticating agent nor any Paying Agent nor any Note Registrar nor any Bid Solicitation Agent nor any Conversion Agent nor any agent of any of them shall be held accountable by reason of the disclosure of any information as to the names and addresses of the Holders of Notes in accordance with Trust Indenture Act Section 312, regardless of the source from which such information was derived, and that the Trustee shall not be held accountable by reason of mailing or sending any material pursuant to a request made under Trust Indenture Act Section 312(b).”
